

What's on the 6th grade final?

1. Those review questions I passed out! (Many of the following include those)
2. Count to 1000 in Spanish.
3. Basic conversation in Spanish.
4. Basic colors in Spanish and how to change them if necessary (la silla roja, el libro rojo).
5. Basic classroom items and how to describe them (el lápiz amarillo)
6. Making items plural (el libro es rojo = los libros son rojos). El/los, la/las.
7. "hay" (there is / there are)
8. Days and months in Spanish and how to say the date (hoy es el doce de diciembre). Make sure you can say your birthday and other major holidays.
9. How to tell time!
10. Be able to describe one of your classes. Know all of your classes.
11. Family words / pets and how to describe them
12. Describing people (characteristics)
13. Talk about the weather
14. clothing / shopping
15. Simple household items (identify by common rooms?)
16. Basic foods (identify by groups or meals)
17. Hobbies
18. Conjugating all verbs (yo, tú, él / ella / usted, nosotros, ellos / ellas / ustedes)
19. FORMING SENTENCES!
20. Asking questions
21. Saying "no" with sentences
22. Culture / songs

What would I do to get ready?

1. Practice the questions
2. Review my vocabulary words
3. Practice verbs (<http://www.conjuguemos.com>), exercise #1 under Spanish
4. Review my songs
5. Ask Mr. Tate questions if you have some.
6. Don't panic TOO much...