

Your name: _____

Hotel oral proficiencies. Have your partner initial your paper when you have successfully completed the required role (you may choose your part on situations 1 & 2. On other situations, you are the main character).

_____ 1a. You have arrived in Cancún during Spring break. Unfortunately, your hotel lost the reservation and sent you to find another room. You are traveling with your superstitious 85 year old mother who gets headaches if she hears too much noise (ruido). See what you can do.

1b. You are a receptionist in Cancún. It's Spring break and everything is completely booked up with college students here for the weekend. The only free room is on the 13th floor, right in the middle of party-central.

_____ 2a. You are a severely allergic person that has to find a room for one night. You don't have a reservation, but you are very wealthy.

2b. You are a receptionist at a hotel that is currently playing host to the "puff-n'-pooch" convention - a group of dog owners that smoke only Cuban Cigars.

_____ 3. You are a guest, checking into a hotel. You made a reservation 3 weeks ago (hace tres semanas), but the receptionist can't find it. You still need a room, as you have an important business meeting (reunión de negocios) in the morning. Tell what kind of room you need and how you plan on paying for it. Make sure to ask questions regarding the amenities (pool = piscina, laundromat = lavandería, room service = servicio al cuarto) and ask what time you need to check-out. Ask any final questions needed and bid farewell.

_____ 4. You have just been hired as a translator for the housekeeping department of mega-Inn USA. Your first task is to train a new group of housekeepers. Explain, in detail, what they need to do in their daily cleaning of each room. Include step-by-step instructions as they have never cleaned anything before in their lives. Use your book for vocab if needed, and some additional vocabulary is included below. If you need more, please ask Sr. Tate

pasar la aspiradora por - to vacuum quitar el polvo de - to dust revisar - to check barrer - to sweep (escoba - broom)

_____ 5. Your stay in el "hotel de sueños" was a disaster (disastre). While checking out, the receptionist asks how your stay was. You decide to let him/her have it. Tell him/her everything that went wrong (careful with preterite vs. imperfect), including details about as much as you can. Answer his/her questions about details of the room, service, etc.

_____ 6. You and your brother have decided to enter the hotel business, but you need a loan. Explain to the loan office about your dreams for the hotel. You will use future tense in everything you say, as the hotel doesn't exist yet. Talk about planned services, amenities and explain what each room will have. (Remember we can use "ir + a" for future - El hotel va a tener una piscina grande, etc.)
